

The Mahoning Dispatch

ISSUED WEEKLY

C. C. FOWLER Editor

CANFIELD, OHIO

TELEPHONE NO. 48.

Terms of Subscription
 One Year.....$1.00
 Six Months.....50
 Three Months.....25
 Single Copy.....10
 (Canadian subscriptions $1.50)

Special Notices.

Obituary Notices, Resolutions of Respect, Cards of Thanks, and notices of church and charitable entertainments and the like, where an admission fee is charged, will be charged for at the rate of one-half cent a word. These must be paid for in advance, or charged to responsible parties ordering the same.

FRIDAY, OCTOBER 7, 1910.

If Gov. Harmon is re-elected governor of Ohio in November nothing but death can head his nomination for the presidency in 1912.

Soon will come the biting frosts to kill the political ambition of numerous gentlemen now hoping to be elected to county office.

Congressman Kennedy shows no sign of worry in his campaign for reelection. He seemingly feels certain of being victorious at the polls.

Now that Youngstown and Poland are both out of the running for the state normal school, The Dispatch hopes that Warren may be able to land it.

Whatever else may be said of Speaker Joe Cannon he is not open to the charge of being afraid to express his opinion on matters of national concern, this is not true of numerous other republican congressmen.

Republican governor candidate Warren G. Harding is putting up a great fight for election in November. Before the campaign closes he will have visited and made speeches in nearly every township in the state.

SALEM

Thomas S. McCann has been appointed carrier on rural route No. 4 succeeding Solomon Helsel who resigned after serving quite a number of years.

Walter Berg, 17 years old, criminally assaulted Mary McGuire, aged 13, last Friday. He was given a hearing and bound over to court, bail being fixed at $1,000 by Mayor Carille.

The county W. C. T. U. convention, held last week in Damascus, will be held next September in Columbiana.

The homecoming harvest festival at the Youngstown and Saturday promise to attract a large crowd to the city. The various events for the two days cannot fail to furnish pleasing entertainment for all comers.

A large number of people from this city attended the harvest festival in Sebring last Saturday.

The annual convention of the Columbiana county C. E. Union is being held in this city.

Mrs. Hiram Taylor went to Canfield Saturday to spend several weeks with relatives.

The board of review has completed its work and reported to the county auditor. The report shows an increase of half a million dollars in the valuation of Salem property.

There is a shortage of miners at the local mines and a shortage of coal is the result.

A street fakir sold a lot of cheap watch chains to a crowd at the corner of Main and Broadway last Saturday. Of course the purchasers expected to get their money back and the chains for nothing, but they didn't.

The same is so old that every one should have been wise to it.

Members of Emanuel Lutheran church have decided to build a parsonage and are soliciting funds for same.

Mrs. Geo. Shontz, 25 years old, after a quarrel last Sunday with her husband, tried to commit suicide by jumping into Little Beaver Creek. She was rescued much against her will by a neighbor who saw her leap into the stream.

BOARDMAN

Oct. 5—Sheldon Newton and his bride of Charlestown, W. Va., spent a few days this week with relatives in this vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. North Newton, who have been living in West Virginia the past few years, contemplate soon returning to their home here.

Mrs. Enich of Charleroi, Pa., concluded a visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Moyer, Sunday, and returned home.

Miss Elizabeth Moyer went to Pittsburgh Tuesday as delegates to the Lutheran convention.

Frank Ewing left Monday morning for a winter's sojourn in California.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Baldwin and several others from here attended the funeral of her brother, O. C. Simon of Youngstown, Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Herron of Cleveland and Mr. and Mrs. Thad Moody of Youngstown called on local relatives Sunday.

The Episcopal church and Rectory and several other houses in this locality are being wired for electricity.

E. L. McKelvey and C. B. Klingensmith, with their families, have gone back to Youngstown after a summer's residence here.

Quite a number in this vicinity attended the funeral of the late Mrs. S. H. Truesdale of Poland last Wednesday and the funeral also of the late Miss Elizabeth Webber at Pleasant Grove, Friday.

A few relatives and friends of Mrs. A. D. Williams called at his home Tuesday evening to remind him of his birthday and spent several hours very pleasantly.

Miss Lucy Hitchcock of Canfield spent Sunday here with friends.

A Reliable Medicine—Not a Narcotic. Get the genuine Foley's Honey and Tar in the yellow package. It is safe and effective. Contains no opiates. Refuse substitutes. F. A. Morris, Canfield.

YOUNGSTOWN

After having been arrested last week when they tried to elope, Mrs. Cornell Harris and William Sullivan are again missing. The woman abandoned two children of tender age.

It was announced that the Gary iron and steel plant had authorized the expenditure of $200,000 on its plant at Niles, and had also directed that plans be made for the building of a new rolling mill in this city, which will probably cost several million dollars.

Directors of the Youngstown Tube Co. have authorized the plans for the new openheart tube plant to be built by the company at East Youngstown at a cost of $4,500,000.

The newspaper writers of Youngstown have formed a Press club which at present includes only the members of the editorial and reporter forces of the papers. Later, it is the intention to admit men from other departments as honorary members.

A new hotel for Youngstown seems assured by the promotion of a company among local capitalists for the building of a hotel which will cost $150,000. It will occupy the site of the Tod House. The releasing of nearly $2,000,000 of Youngstown capital by the sale of the Seattle Independent Telephone Co. made it possible to put through the hotel deal, which has been talked of for the past ten years.

Since the state normal school commission has decided that the school cannot be located either in this city or Poland strenuous effort will be made by influential men here to have the institution located in Warren.

Material furnished for the county jail does not come up to specifications and for that reason there will be delay in occupying the building. Indications now are that the jail will not be finished before the first of the year, or the time set for getting into the new court house.

A ramble through certain quarters of the city will show the most careless disregard that New York has nothing on Youngstown in the matter of wickedness. There are as tough joints in this city as can be found anywhere on earth.

The Telegram has adopted a new style of head letter which greatly improves the appearance of that excellent paper.

The indicator will have a housewarming on the evening of Oct. 26 and the public has been invited to be on hand and see the big and busy plant in operation from basement to attic.

Journeyman tailors of the city are on a strike.

Frank Jacobs and C. F. Owsley were out for a spin in their automobiles Saturday. When they went together at a street crossing the latter's machine was badly wrecked.

It is expected that the new viaduct at Spring Common will be open for traffic by the first of November. Several months will elapse, however, before the structure is completed.

City schools will close for Columbus day, Oct. 12.

David Evans, pioneer fireman, died Monday night and was buried Wednesday.

Win Houser and Fred Bowman pleaded guilty Tuesday to overdriving a horse to the Canfield fair last week and were fined $2 and costs each. The horse belonged to Pen-nell's livery stable.

Rev. Patrick O'Connor and wife leave next Monday for Los Angeles, Cal., to spend the winter.

All produce is now sold by the pound in this city, the new order having gone into effect Monday.

An effort is being made to have a north side sub-station postoffice established.

There are 99 members of the Rayen school senior class.

There will be some fly people in the city next Wednesday.

M. M. Gilboy, Lake Shore engineer, and Joe Kurlbayne, fireman, were badly scalded Wednesday when their locomotive dropped her crown sheet.

The foreign quarter of the city continues to furnish numerous cutting and shooting scrapes. But the capers go on largely among themselves.

County commissioner Wymer objects to having the basement of the new court house plastered at a high price, especially when the room will not be needed for several years.

Thursday was the opening day for city voters to register.

Attorney Thos. Greene, colored, killed a big blacksnake on Hillman street Tuesday afternoon.

It is claimed that loan and mortgage companies in this city are ignoring the ordinance recently passed to regulate them.

NORTH LIMA

Oct. 5—Mr. and Mrs. C. Sanders and daughter visited relatives in New Waterford and Columbiana over Sunday.

John Wicks of Slippery Rock, Pa., was the guest of relatives here Monday.

Ralph Clinker of the city spent Sunday here with his mother.

Preaching in the Evangelical church next Sunday evening.

James McNeal of Salem and Mrs. McCarm of Leetonia were guests of Mrs. Rosanna Miller Sunday.

Word was received here Saturday of the marriage of R. H. Dutrow and Miss Lillian Haddison, both formerly of this place, now residing in West Virginia. Many friends extend heartiest congratulations.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Sell spent Sunday with her parents in Greenford.

W. E. Glenn visited his daughter, Mrs. J. W. Rotzel, in Columbiana Tuesday.

Olive Good attended the Lutheran Synod at Moundsville, W. Va., last week.

Mrs. John Dunn has sold her property here and expects to soon move to Pleasant Grove.

Conden Smith and wife of Leetonia were Sunday visitors at the home of F. Clinker.

Miss Minnie Wolfgang of Austintown was home over Sunday.

Willard Kirk, wife and daughter Olive of Salem spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Israel Hahn.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Burky of New Springfield visited at the home of John Dunn Sunday.

NOTICE

A meeting will be held in the Eureka school house Monday evening, Oct. 10, when the farmers will organize the Beaver Township People's Game Association. Everybody invited.

Possibly one reason some men fail to make money in the chicken business is that they rely upon the hens to do all the work.

Little strokes fell great oaks.

HUMOR OF THE HOUR

UNSEXED.

An Incident Which Shows Fallow of Jumping at Identifications.

A tramp passing through the waiting room of the Northwestern depot at Milwaukee spied a small enamel tin lying on the floor. He picked it up looked it over in a careless way, and pinned it on the lapel of his coat. The same tramp, a few moments later, was hit and knocked into unconsciousness by a switch engine in the freight yards, just outside the depot. The trainmen picked him up and telephoned to Police Headquarters for an ambulance.

"What did you say his name was?" came over the telephone from the desk sergeant.

"Don't know. The man is unconscious," replied the switchman.

"Any papers on him by which you can identify him?" asked the sergeant.

"Not a thing," phoned back the switchman.

"Does he belong to any lodge or union?" inquired the sergeant.

"Hold the line till I take a look," replied the switchman, and in a moment the desk sergeant was greatly surprised to receive this information:

"Yes; he is a Lady Macabean."

It Happened in Church.

A Southern clergyman tells the following amusing story:

After the morning sermon one Sunday he had read the notices for the week, and then announced the closing hymn—Number so-and-so. At that moment one of the deacons came down the aisle, and the minister paused to hear what he had to say, which was that the pastor had forgotten to give notice of a meeting of the ladies of the congregation.

Accordingly the divine gave the notice, apologized to the congregation for his forgetfulness, and then again announced the number of the hymn, and proceeded to read it. His feelings and those of the congregation may be imagined when he began:

"Lord, what a thoughtless wretch was I!"

PREDESTINATED.

There was a young fellow named Bill Who did not believe in free will. When asked to sew wood. He'd say, "Yes, if I could; But I feel predestinated to sit still."

A Discomfiting Witness.

The following colloquy took place between Counselor Sealingwax and a witness who "would talk back": "You say, sir, the prisoner is a thief?" "Yes, sir." "Cause why, she has confessed she was." "And you also swear she worked for you after this confession?" "Yes, sir." "Then we are to understand that you employ dishonest people to work for you, even after their rascalities are known?" "Of course. How else would I get assistance from a lawyer?"

His Dearest Wish.

A certain Congressman is the father of a bright lad of ten, who persists, despite the parental objection and decree, in reading literature of the "half-dime" variety. "That's a nice way to be spending your time," said the father on one occasion. "What's your ambition, anyhow?" "Dad," responded the youngster, with a smile, "I'd like to have people tremble like 'sphen leaves at the mere mention of my name."

A Dreadful Woman.

"That woman next door is really dreadful, John," said a young married woman to her husband. "She does nothing but 'alk the whole day long. She cannot get any work done, I'm sure." "Oh," remarked the husband, "I thought she was a chatterbox. And to whom does she talk?" "Why, my dear, to me, of course," was the reply. "She talks to me over the back fence."—Philadelphia Ledger.

Fatiguing.

"You look tired, Johnny. What's the matter—social duties too much for you?" said a gentleman in a Cincinnati elevator the other day, jocosely.

"Yes, sir," replied the elevator boy, opening the door at the ninth floor to let out Mr. Taft. "I've been getting up a large party."

Revenge.

This is now the sixth time that I wait for her in vain. If she is not here to-morrow I'll go away and disappoint her!—Simplicissimus

Taffy for Grandmother.

There is hardly anything that fathers a grandmother more than telling her you don't believe she is one.—Galveston News.

We only see in a lifetime a dozen faces marked with the peace of a contented spirit.—Becher.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS

—Cider and apple butter-making season.

—Rain Wednesday and Thursday interfered with fairs in Akron, Minerva and Carrollton.

—Trinity Reformed church in Lisbon will celebrate the centennial of its organization Oct. 11 and 12.

—Mrs. Ann Nichols, 80 years old, died in Mineral Ridge. Funeral services Friday afternoon at 1 o'clock.

—Mrs. Edward Whitman of Girard had her purse containing $8 stolen while here last week attending the fair.

—B. L. Manchester has been appointed administrator of the estate of the late Louis Cook of Goshen township.

—The first number of the Ellsworth lecture course will be given in the Presbyterian church Saturday evening, Oct. 8.

—Chester Hartzell, residing near Salem, had his wallet containing $45 stolen last Saturday at the Sebring home-coming celebration.

—East Youngstown, less than two years old, has 4,000 population and 36 saloons. Saturday, Sunday and Monday following the last pay day a total of 76 arrests were made.

—Mrs. Mary A. Williamson died Monday in Lowellville, where she was born and spent her entire life, aged 95 years. Funeral services were held Wednesday and burial was in the Hillside cemetery.

—A large barn owned by Wm. Lovelless on the Austin farm near Warren was set on fire Tuesday by a passing locomotive and completely destroyed with most of its contents. There was some insurance but the owner's loss is placed at $5,000.

—Mayor Hinchliffe of Lisbon fined Stephen Ridinger of Wellsville $1,100 and costs on 11 charges of selling liquor illegally, to which he pleaded guilty, but one-half the amount was remitted on the promise of Ridinger to be good hereafter.

—While Ollie Rose, a farmer living near Obitown, was hunting last Saturday in Howard township his gun was accidentally discharged and his right arm was riddled with shot. He was hurried to Niles where his arm was amputated above the elbow. He was then taken home and has since been in a serious condition.

—The $10,000 damage suit instituted some time ago in common pleas court by Leon Lixuel, administrator of the estate of Leon Vignon, against the Salem Mining Co., is in process of settlement and was passed out of the assignment in court last week.

Vignon was employed in the mine of the defendant company in Salem township, in the capacity of roadman, and was instantly killed on October 4, 1907, by a fall of slate from the roof of the mine.

—The Ohio synod of the Reformed Church of the United States, at Columbiana, Wednesday, completed its organization by electing Rev. D. W. Loucks, Bellevue, president; Rev. J. C. Stahl, of Alliance, vice president; Dr. S. B. Dean, Carrollton, state clerk; O. G. King, Thornville, corresponding secretary, and Frank P. Brown, Dayton, treasurer. The principal matter at the morning session was a discussion of the work of the Central Theological Seminary at Dayton. An address was delivered by its president, Dr. David Van Horn. He declared that there were "not latent seeds of rationalism" in the school.

—The Ohio synod of the Reformed Church of the United States, at Columbiana, Wednesday, completed its organization by electing Rev. D. W. Loucks, Bellevue, president; Rev. J. C. Stahl, of Alliance, vice president; Dr. S. B. Dean, Carrollton, state clerk; O. G. King, Thornville, corresponding secretary, and Frank P. Brown, Dayton, treasurer. The principal matter at the morning session was a discussion of the work of the Central Theological Seminary at Dayton. An address was delivered by its president, Dr. David Van Horn. He declared that there were "not latent seeds of rationalism" in the school.

—The Ohio synod of the Reformed Church of the United States, at Columbiana, Wednesday, completed its organization by electing Rev. D. W. Loucks, Bellevue, president; Rev. J. C. Stahl, of Alliance, vice president; Dr. S. B. Dean, Carrollton, state clerk; O. G. King, Thornville, corresponding secretary, and Frank P. Brown, Dayton, treasurer. The principal matter at the morning session was a discussion of the work of the Central Theological Seminary at Dayton. An address was delivered by its president, Dr. David Van Horn. He declared that there were "not latent seeds of rationalism" in the school.

—The Ohio synod of the Reformed Church of the United States, at Columbiana, Wednesday, completed its organization by electing Rev. D. W. Loucks, Bellevue, president; Rev. J. C. Stahl, of Alliance, vice president; Dr. S. B. Dean, Carrollton, state clerk; O. G. King, Thornville, corresponding secretary, and Frank P. Brown, Dayton, treasurer. The principal matter at the morning session was a discussion of the work of the Central Theological Seminary at Dayton. An address was delivered by its president, Dr. David Van Horn. He declared that there were "not latent seeds of rationalism" in the school.

—The Ohio synod of the Reformed Church of the United States, at Columbiana, Wednesday, completed its organization by electing Rev. D. W. Loucks, Bellevue, president; Rev. J. C. Stahl, of Alliance, vice president; Dr. S. B. Dean, Carrollton, state clerk; O. G. King, Thornville, corresponding secretary, and Frank P. Brown, Dayton, treasurer. The principal matter at the morning session was a discussion of the work of the Central Theological Seminary at Dayton. An address was delivered by its president, Dr. David Van Horn. He declared that there were "not latent seeds of rationalism" in the school.

—The Ohio synod of the Reformed Church of the United States, at Columbiana, Wednesday, completed its organization by electing Rev. D. W. Loucks, Bellevue, president; Rev. J. C. Stahl, of Alliance, vice president; Dr. S. B. Dean, Carrollton, state clerk; O. G. King, Thornville, corresponding secretary, and Frank P. Brown, Dayton, treasurer. The principal matter at the morning session was a discussion of the work of the Central Theological Seminary at Dayton. An address was delivered by its president, Dr. David Van Horn. He declared that there were "not latent seeds of rationalism" in the school.

—The Ohio synod of the Reformed Church of the United States, at Columbiana, Wednesday, completed its organization by electing Rev. D. W. Loucks, Bellevue, president; Rev. J. C. Stahl, of Alliance, vice president; Dr. S. B. Dean, Carrollton, state clerk; O. G. King, Thornville, corresponding secretary, and Frank P. Brown, Dayton, treasurer. The principal matter at the morning session was a discussion of the work of the Central Theological Seminary at Dayton. An address was delivered by its president, Dr. David Van Horn. He declared that there were "not latent seeds of rationalism" in the school.

—The Ohio synod of the Reformed Church of the United States, at Columbiana, Wednesday, completed its organization by electing Rev. D. W. Loucks, Bellevue, president; Rev. J. C. Stahl, of Alliance, vice president; Dr. S. B. Dean, Carrollton, state clerk; O. G. King, Thornville, corresponding secretary, and Frank P. Brown, Dayton, treasurer. The principal matter at the morning session was a discussion of the work of the Central Theological Seminary at Dayton. An address was delivered by its president, Dr. David Van Horn. He declared that there were "not latent seeds of rationalism" in the school.

—The Ohio synod of the Reformed Church of the United States, at Columbiana, Wednesday, completed its organization by electing Rev. D. W. Loucks, Bellevue, president; Rev. J. C. Stahl, of Alliance, vice president; Dr. S. B. Dean, Carrollton, state clerk; O. G. King, Thornville, corresponding secretary, and Frank P. Brown, Dayton, treasurer. The principal matter at the morning session was a discussion of the work of the Central Theological Seminary at Dayton. An address was delivered by its president, Dr. David Van Horn. He declared that there were "not latent seeds of rationalism" in the school.

—The Ohio synod of the Reformed Church of the United States, at Columbiana, Wednesday, completed its organization by electing Rev. D. W. Loucks, Bellevue, president; Rev. J. C. Stahl, of Alliance, vice president; Dr. S. B. Dean, Carrollton, state clerk; O. G. King, Thornville, corresponding secretary, and Frank P. Brown, Dayton, treasurer. The principal matter at the morning session was a discussion of the work of the Central Theological Seminary at Dayton. An address was delivered by its president, Dr. David Van Horn. He declared that there were "not latent seeds of rationalism" in the school.

—The Ohio synod of the Reformed Church of the United States, at Columbiana, Wednesday, completed its organization by electing Rev. D. W. Loucks, Bellevue, president; Rev. J. C. Stahl, of Alliance, vice president; Dr. S. B. Dean, Carrollton, state clerk; O. G. King, Thornville, corresponding secretary, and Frank P. Brown, Dayton, treasurer. The principal matter at the morning session was a discussion of the work of the Central Theological Seminary at Dayton. An address was delivered by its president, Dr. David Van Horn. He declared that there were "not latent seeds of rationalism" in the school.

—The Ohio synod of the Reformed Church of the United States, at Columbiana, Wednesday, completed its organization by electing Rev. D. W. Loucks, Bellevue, president; Rev. J. C. Stahl, of Alliance, vice president; Dr. S. B. Dean, Carrollton, state clerk; O. G. King, Thornville, corresponding secretary, and Frank P. Brown, Dayton, treasurer. The principal matter at the morning session was a discussion of the work of the Central Theological Seminary at Dayton. An address was delivered by its president, Dr. David Van Horn. He declared that there were "not latent seeds of rationalism" in the school.

—The Ohio synod of the Reformed Church of the United States, at Columbiana, Wednesday, completed its organization by electing Rev. D. W. Loucks, Bellevue, president; Rev. J. C. Stahl, of Alliance, vice president; Dr. S. B. Dean, Carrollton, state clerk; O. G. King, Thornville, corresponding secretary, and Frank P. Brown, Dayton, treasurer. The principal matter at the morning session was a discussion of the work of the Central Theological Seminary at Dayton. An address was delivered by its president, Dr. David Van Horn. He declared that there were "not latent seeds of rationalism" in the school.

—The Ohio synod of the Reformed Church of the United States, at Columbiana, Wednesday, completed its organization by electing Rev. D. W. Loucks, Bellevue, president; Rev. J. C. Stahl, of Alliance, vice president; Dr. S. B. Dean, Carrollton, state clerk; O. G. King, Thornville, corresponding secretary, and Frank P. Brown, Dayton, treasurer. The principal matter at the morning session was a discussion of the work of the Central Theological Seminary at Dayton. An address was delivered by its president, Dr. David Van Horn. He declared that there were "not latent seeds of rationalism" in the school.

—The Ohio synod of the Reformed Church of the United States, at Columbiana, Wednesday, completed its organization by electing Rev. D. W. Loucks, Bellevue, president; Rev. J. C. Stahl, of Alliance, vice president; Dr. S. B. Dean, Carrollton, state clerk; O. G. King, Thornville, corresponding secretary, and Frank P. Brown, Dayton, treasurer. The principal matter at the morning session was a discussion of the work of the Central Theological Seminary at Dayton. An address was delivered by its president, Dr. David Van Horn. He declared that there were "not latent seeds of rationalism" in the school.

—The Ohio synod of the Reformed Church of the United States, at Columbiana, Wednesday, completed its organization by electing Rev. D. W. Loucks, Bellevue, president; Rev. J. C. Stahl, of Alliance, vice president; Dr. S. B. Dean, Carrollton, state clerk; O. G. King, Thornville, corresponding secretary, and Frank P. Brown, Dayton, treasurer. The principal matter at the morning session was a discussion of the work of the Central Theological Seminary at Dayton. An address was delivered by its president, Dr. David Van Horn. He declared that there were "not latent seeds of rationalism" in the school.

—The Ohio synod of the Reformed Church of the United States, at Columbiana, Wednesday, completed its organization by electing Rev. D. W. Loucks, Bellevue, president; Rev. J. C. Stahl, of Alliance, vice president; Dr. S. B. Dean, Carrollton, state clerk; O. G. King, Thornville, corresponding secretary, and Frank P. Brown, Dayton, treasurer. The principal matter at the morning session was a discussion of the work of the Central Theological Seminary at Dayton. An address was delivered by its president, Dr. David Van Horn. He declared that there were "not latent seeds of rationalism" in the school.

—The Ohio synod of the Reformed Church of the United States, at Columbiana, Wednesday, completed its organization by electing Rev. D. W. Loucks, Bellevue, president; Rev. J. C. Stahl, of Alliance, vice president; Dr. S. B. Dean, Carrollton, state clerk; O. G. King, Thornville, corresponding secretary, and Frank P. Brown, Dayton, treasurer. The principal matter at the morning session was a discussion of the work of the Central Theological Seminary at Dayton. An address was delivered by its president, Dr. David Van Horn. He declared that there were "not latent seeds of rationalism" in the school.

—The Ohio synod of the Reformed Church of the United States, at Columbiana, Wednesday, completed its organization by electing Rev. D. W. Loucks, Bellevue, president; Rev. J. C. Stahl, of Alliance, vice president; Dr. S. B. Dean, Carrollton, state clerk; O. G. King, Thornville, corresponding secretary, and Frank P. Brown, Dayton, treasurer. The principal matter at the morning session was a discussion of the work of the Central Theological Seminary at Dayton. An address was delivered by its president, Dr. David Van Horn. He declared that there were "not latent seeds of rationalism" in the school.